LOCATION

Limerick has developed as the main economic and cultural centre for the Mid-West of Ireland. Limerick continues to be one of Ireland's most sought after locations by many Multinational Companies seeking to establish their businesses in Ireland. The City's reputation and suitability as a business location has a consolidated office demand from many sectors including technology, medical devices and financial services. Multinationals from these sectors have selected Limerick as the destination to build upon their presence in the European Market.

Limerick Enterprise Development Park is located at the edge of Limerick City Centre adjacent to the Southern Ring Road, N20 (Cork/Kerry), N7 (Galway) national and primary routes. The Park is home to a number of high profile commercial occupiers such as Virgin Media, 6pm Solutions etc., as well as being adjacent to a Shopping Parade, Aldi and the Quality Hotel. The site is well serviced by public transport and is within easy reach of Limerick City Centre.

Limerick has a total population of 191,809, and of this figure, a total of 134,703 people live in Limerick County while the remaining population of 57,106 live in Limerick City, (Census 2011). The majority of the population living in the City of Limerick, 57,106 are within the age profile of 20-30 years, reflecting the fact that Limerick is home to so many young, educated and skilled people. There are two 3rd level institutions located in the city namely, University of Limerick and Limerick Institute of Technology, presenting a high calibre of graduates into the workforce.
